Why else should you reserve through the official housing provider?

You could be a lucky winner! In 2023, we had 12 recipients of a complimentary sleeping room night which was applied to their reservations. By reserving your room through the official housing provider, you will be entered into the prize drawings.

Use either method below to make your reservation and you are automatically entered into the drawing. Cancelled reservations will be ineligible. The winners will be contacted via email one week prior to the 2024 NASP® Eastern National Tournament.
