Proposal

3-D International (3-D I) the official organization directing competitive 3-D Archery on a multi-national level under sanctioning by the International Archery Federation, respectfully requests to enter an official partnership with the National Archery in the Schools Program®. 3-D I & NASP® share multiple common goals, including the expansion of Archery as an official curriculum component in schools in the U.S. & in other countries. In addition 3-D I, enthusiastically supports the NASP® Instructor training program, it's standardized teaching methods and the important linkage the program requires between educational & physical activity. 3-D I shares the vision of the NASP® and it's founders, and pledges to freely collaborate so it's objectives are surpassed.

Members of 3-D International will automatically be enrolled in the Organization's Error's and Omissions and General Liability insurance program upon acceptance and payment of dues.

The Professional Liability part provides coverage for claims alleging negligent actions, omissions or breach of duty in the scope of a member's activities as an instructor for 3-D International. The policy provides not only payment of claims, but also for appointing and paying for legal defense in the event of a covered lawsuit being filed against a member. The policy provides a limit of $250,000 per alleged "Wrongful Act". This limit includes payments made as well as direct claim defense expenses.

The General Liability part of the 3-D International insurance package will pay those sums that the member becomes legally obligated to pay as damages of bodily injury or property damages because of bodily injury or property damages to which this coverage applies. The insuring company will have the right and duty to defend the member against any suit seeking those damages.

The limits are:
General Aggregate
$2,000,000.00

Products & Completed Operations
$2,000,000.00

Personal Injury
$1,000,000.00

Each Occurrence
$1,000,000.00

Fire Damage
$100,000.00

Medical Expense
$5,000.00

As of April 3rd 2011

The above is a brief summary of the policy and does not alter any of the policy terms or conditions. For full coverage information, please refer to the actual policy.
