

NASP® Instructor, Trainer, and Specialist Requirements

Instructor (BAI):

Requirements:	Must: be at least 18 years old (non-high school student). (and) attend a BAI class and pass a BAI practical exam and score at least 80% on the exam.
Retention:	Must: present/teach/coach a minimum of 10 hours of NASP® archery lessons each school year. (and) submit an on-line teaching activity report (naspbai.org) each school year.
Re-activation:	Retake a BAI course and pass the practical exam and score at least 80% on the exam. (or) Complete the NASP® On-line Refresher class/exam (if suspended). (or) Complete the NASP® On-line Reactivation class/exam (if terminated with coordinator approval).

Trainer (BAIT):

Requirements:	Must: be at least 18 years old (non-high school student). (and) hold a current BAI certification. (and) have the jurisdiction coordinator's approval to be certified (and) attend a BAIT class and pass a BAIT practical exam and score at least 90% on the exam.
Retention:	Must teach at least one BAI (Instructor) class every 18 months.  The class must be listed on naspbai.org and the trainer must be listed as a trainer for the class.  A BAIT that fails to meet the retention requirement will be changed to a BAI level certification if able to meet the BAI retention requirement.
Re-activation:	Retake a BAIT course and pass the practical exam and score at least 90% on the exam. (or) Complete the NASP® On-line Reactivation class/exam (with coordinator approval).

Specialist (BAITS):

Requirements:	Must: be at least 18 years old (non-high school student). (and) hold a current BAIT certification. (and) have taught 4 BAI classes (at least 1 must be a traditional BAI class) (and) have the jurisdiction coordinator's approval to be certified (and) attend a BAITS class and pass a BAITS practical exam.
Retention:	Must teach at least one BAIT (Trainer) class or one BAI (Instructor) class every 18 months.  The class must be listed on naspbai.org and the trainer must be listed as a trainer for the class.  A BAITS that fails to meet the retention requirement will be changed to a BAI level certification if able to meet the BAI retention requirement.
Re-activation:	Retake a BAITS course and pass the practical exam. (or) Complete the NASP® On-line Reactivation class/exam (with coordinator approval).

NOTES:

The information above is as defined by the national NASP® office. Individual states and provinces reserve the right to implement more stringent requirements.

Individual states and provinces reserve the right to determine who may or may not maintain a BAI/BAIT/BAITS certification in their state/province.

The national NASP® office reserves the right to revoke the certification of any BAI/BAIT/BAITS if deemed necessary to protect NASP® and any persons associated with the program.